THE STABBED BOY DEAD

PERITONITIS DEVELOPED AND END CAME AT 7 O'CLOCK
THIS MORNING.

LAD WHO DID CUTTING IS STILL AT LARGE

Sad Sequel to Quarrel Between Two Brothers, Victor Bailey, Aged
13, and Kirk Bailey, Aged 15, at Their Home Sunday.

After hovering between life and death for three days, Kirk Bailey, the 15-year-old son of Mrs. Lucy Bailey, of 610 West Fourth street, succumbed to the effects of a stab wound inflicted last Sunday by his 13-year-old brother, Victor, and passed into the unknown world, at Maywood hospital, at 7 o'clock this morning.

The direct cause of death was peritonitis, which developed last night, and which successfully executed its deadly result, in spite of all that medical skill and attention could do, the soul of the young man passing out of this world at the hour stated, while members of his family were at his bedside.

The stabbing which resulted in Kirk Bailey's death occurred last Sunday. Kirk, who was 15 years old on Jan. 6, and his brother, Victor, aged 13, were scuffling in the kitchen of their mother's home, 610 West Fourth street, when both became angered.

Although the younger brother was larger in stature than Kirk, the former seized a butcher knife to defend himself, but was disarmed by his mother.

The two boys went out into another room, and in a moment the mother heard the elder son scream. Rushing into that part of the house, she saw the elder son stabbed in the abdomen, with blood spurting from the wound, while a small pocket knifelay on the floor.

The injured child was hurriedly removed to Maywood hospital, where Drs. Dyer, Bohling and Cowan performed an operation to ascertain the extent of the injury, discovering that the knife blade had penetrated the abdomen two and one-half inches, although the intestines had not been punctured.

The best of medical attention was given the boy, and Tuesday a slight change for the better manifested itself but early last night peritonitis developed and claimed its victim at the hour stated.

Within eight hours after the stabbing, the young fratricide escaped from his home through a second story window, and has not been located so far, although the city and county authorities have been requested to find him.

The Rev. J. F. Caskey, pastor of the Fifth Street M. E. church, South, will conduct funeral services at the family residence at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, and the body will be taken to Dresden for interment.

Besides the widowed mother, the dead boy leaves the following brothers and sisters: Edgar, a farmer, of Dresden; Alonzo, aged 18, residing in the state of Washington; Victor, aged 13; Anna, aged 19; Mary, aged 17; Josie, aged 9, and Florence, aged 7 years.

The dead boy was a student at Prospect school, being a member of class A, room No. 7. Victor was a member of class B, room No. 6.

The death of Kirk Bailey has cast a gloom over hundreds of Sedalians, whose sincere sympathy is extended to the widowed mother in this her deepest bereavement.

Owing to the nature of the case and the youth of the principals, the details are more striking than ordinarily, and should serve as a warning to every minor in Sedalia.

Last Sunday morning Kirk Bailey and his brother, Victor, arose as happy as youths can be. The future held out many inducements for both, but a little argument arose, which later developed into anger, and shortly afterwards one boy lay at death's door in a hospital, with a stab wound urging on death, while the younger boy, in the depths of despair, gave up his mother and home to find solace for the awful deed he had accomplished.

The father of the Bailey boys died at Dresden six years ago. He was engaged in loading oats into a car when a rain storm came up. Mr. Bailey worked so hard that he became overheated and also exhausted, and without a premonition of illness fell dead in his tracks, death having resulted from heart trouble.

Wreck on the Southern Railway.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 28.—A passenger train on the Southern railway from Evansville at noon today was wrecked three miles from New Albany, Ind. Nobody is reported having been killed, but many persons are said to have been injured.

Nightrider Jury Couldn't Agree.

Union City, Tenn. Jan. 28.—The jury in the case of Ed Marshall, the nightrider, reported this morning that they were unable to agree on a verdict and were discharged.

NO TRUTH IN THE "STORY"

THAT FRANK R. HULLAND WAS MARRIED IN KANSAS CITY
WEDNESDAY.

GENTLEMAN MAKES BRIEF STATEMENT

A Joke Is a Joke, but When a Young Woman's Name Is Given Publicity, Then It Is Going a Little Bit Too Far.

"I wish the Democrat-Sentinel would say in its issue of tonight that there is not the least foundation for the story printed in this morning's Capital, that I was married in Kansas City yesterday and came home with my bride last night," said former Alderman Frank Hulland over the 'phone today to a reporter of this paper.

"It is true that I returned last night from Kansas City in company with a young lady friend, but it is not true that she is my wife.

"She has been a friend for the past two years, and I hope to retain her friendship, but the story that we were married there yesterday is not true, and in justice to both her and me, I would like to have the Democrat-Sentinel so state to the public.

"A Capital reporter talked with me last night, and I told him that if a report had been received here that we were married it was untrue.

"The reporter questioned the truth of my statement, and remarked that I wanted to save the item to give the Democrat-Sentinel a 'scoop.'

"I told him such was not the case, but he told his readers to the contrary this morning, and I now want the public to know the facts in the case.

"A joke is a joke, but when a young lady's name is brought into the public prints, as was the case this morning, it is going a little too far."

IN THE MIDST OF SIEGE

Salvation Army Engaged in Saving Sinners in Sedalia.

The Salvation Army is now in the midst of its "siege," which commenced Sunday, January 17, and will last one month.

The siege is what the churches term their revival. Next week greater efforts will be put forth to win the drunkards and notorious sinners. These will be visited through the week and invited to the meetings.

Cottage prayer meetings are being held every afternoon. Rev. P. E. Pierce will preach Saturday night. The public is invited. Admission as free as salvation.

NOT RETURN TO WHITE HOUSE

Roosevelt Will Go Direct to Union Station From Inauguration.

Washington Jan. 28.—President Roosevelt said today that he will not follow the usual custom and ride to the White House, March 4th, with his successor in office. He told a New York congressman that he would go direct from the capital after Mr. Taft takes the oath of office, to the union station and take the train for New York.

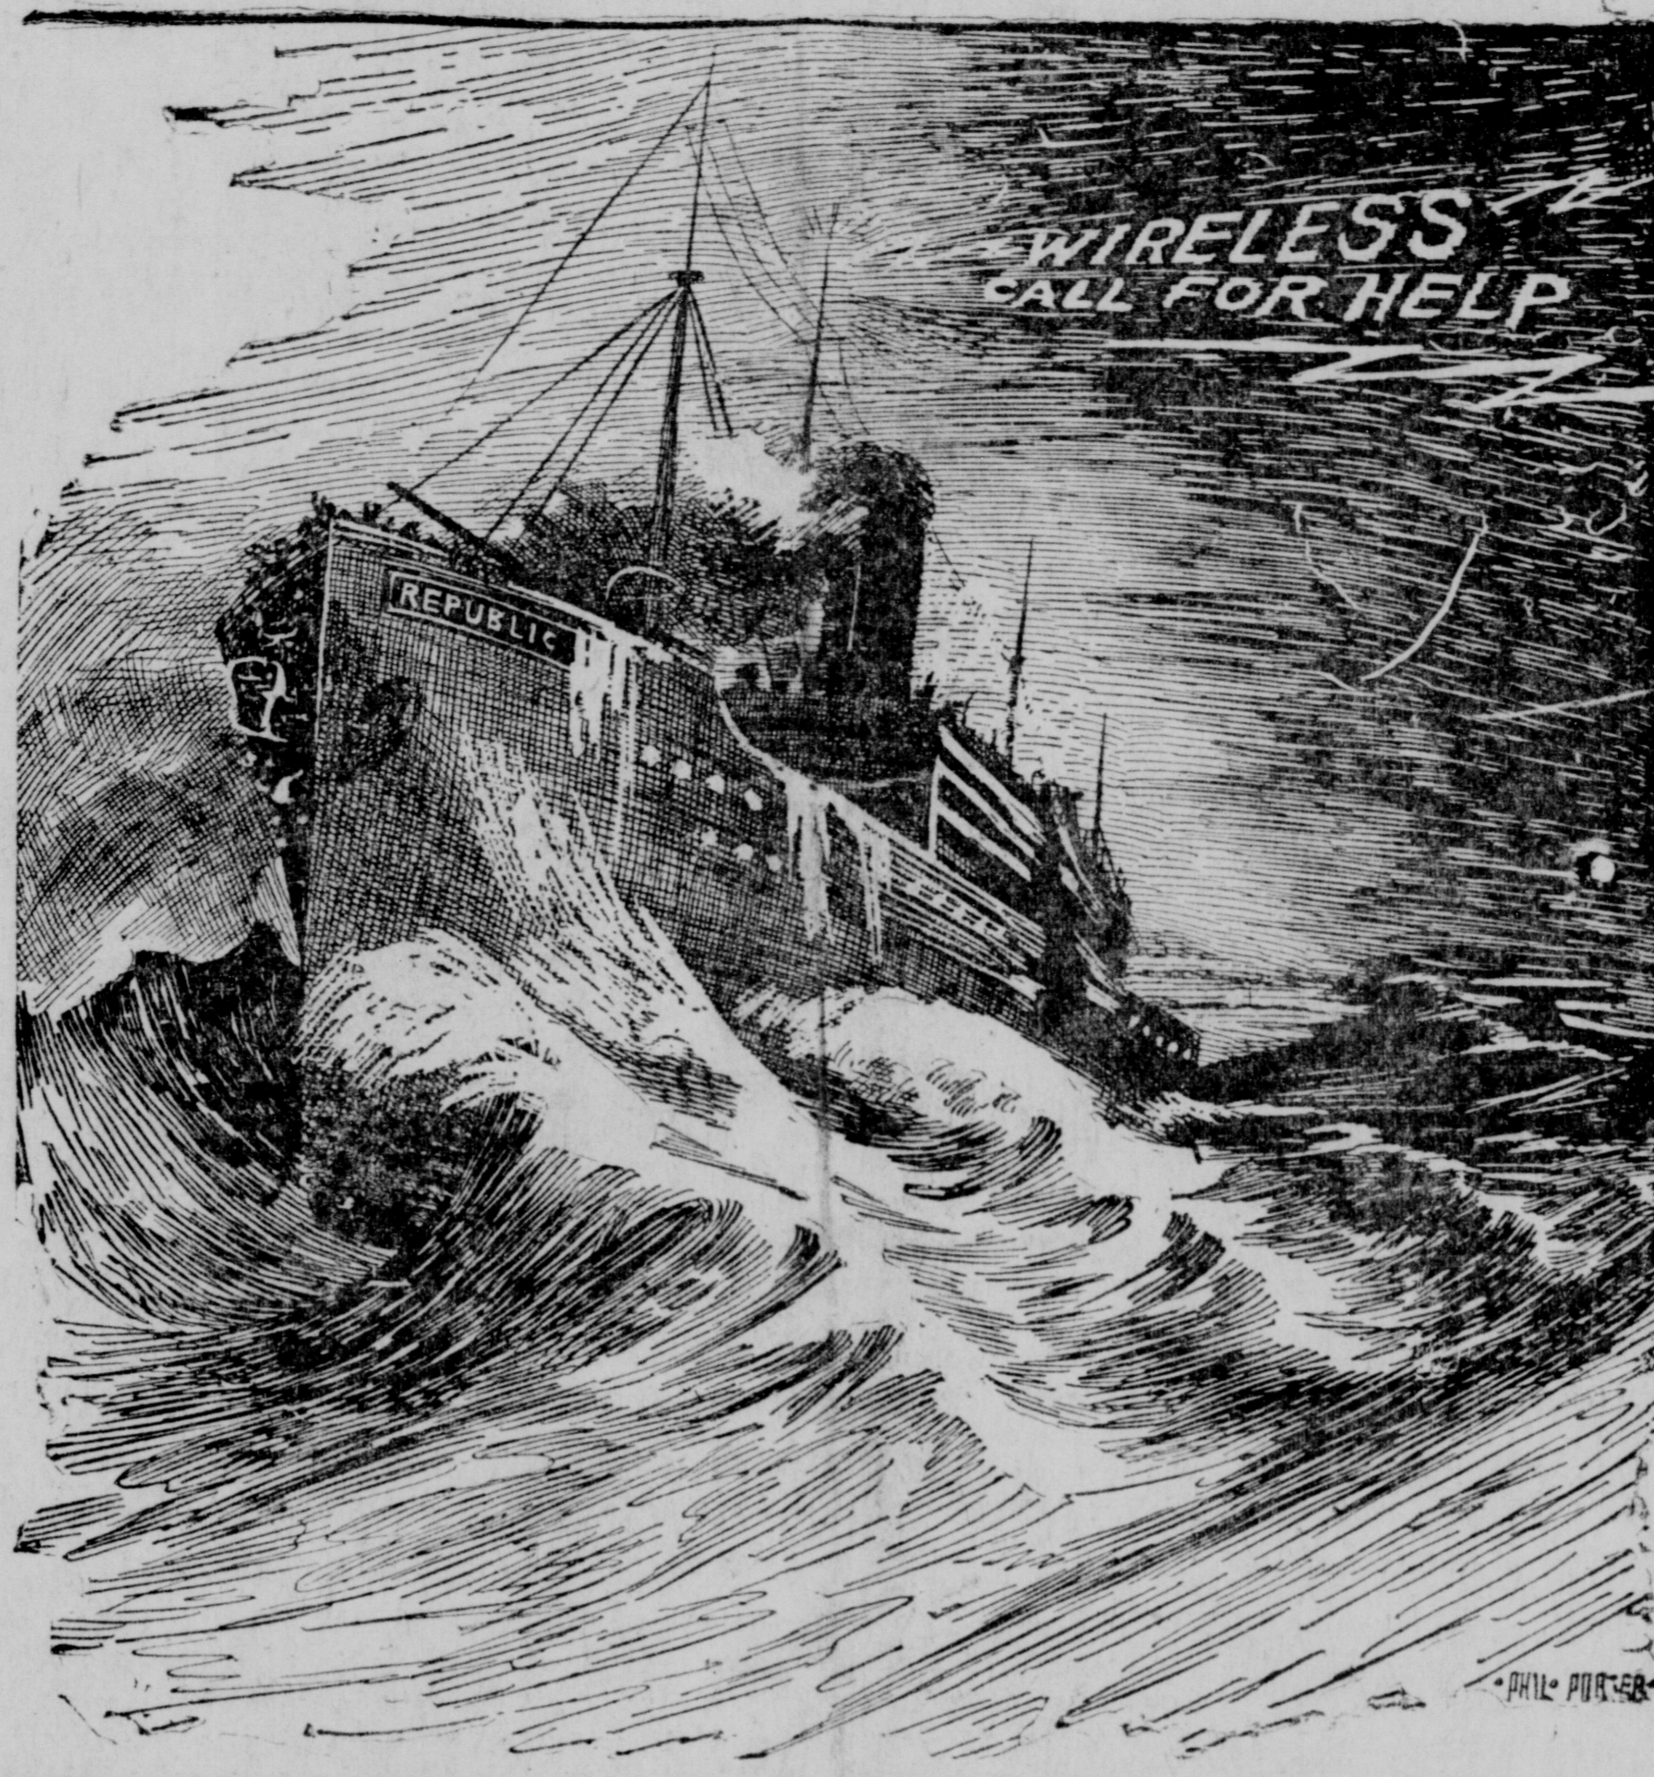

Sheriff After a Forger.

Sheriff M. T. Henderson is at work this afternoon tracing a forger, who will probably be behind the bars by the supper hour, unless unforeseen complications arise.

Mr. Imhoff Is Improving.

M. L. Imhoff, county clerk, who has been quite ill with congestion of the lungs at his home, is improving nicely.

THE INVISIBLE LIFE LINE

NO AGREEMENT AS YET

BI-PARTISAN COMMITTEE AR-RIVED IN JEFFERSON CITY
THIS AFTERNOON.

THE SENTIMENT IS FOR A SQUARE DEAL

Democratic Members Express Themselves As Wanting to Vote Honestly in the Lieutenant Governor Contest.

Special to the Democrat-Sentinel.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 28.—The Bi-Partisan Election Committee arrived in Jefferson City from St. Louis at one o'clock this afternoon and are as far from a final agreement as ever. They will go into executive session at 3 o'clock to hear more evidence bearing upon the recount. A dual report will probably be submitted to the joint assembly tomorrow afternoon.

Before the committee arrived the general opinion about the capital was to the effect that any effort to seat Painter arbitrarily along narrow party lines, would meet with opposition from a large number of democrats in both houses. John T. Barker, minority leader and W. Wallace Crossley, both strong partisans and the ones most likely to be in favor of seating Painter by a straight party majority, have made no expression and the members here are disposed to exercise fair play in their decision as contemplated in the agreement entered into early in the session. Senator Bradley especially is opposed to the democrats going into caucus previous to the time when the matter will be carried to the floor of the house.

"The controversy is no longer a party affair," said Senator Bradley this morning, "and there should be no caucus. If there should be a caucus the people of the state would look upon it as a strictly party matter and as an attempt upon our part to seat Painter arbitrarily. There is no disposition on the part of a majority of the democrats to do this. We want fair play and I for one will vote to seat the man for whom I am convinced the most honest votes were cast regardless of whether he be republican or democrat. I want to see the evidence and hear both sides before I make any decision as to how I shall vote but the matter should be argued out on the floor and not decided behind the closed doors of a caucus room." Senator Bradley's opinion is shared by many other democratic members including Representatives Muir, Spence and Hawkins. Of Dunklin, Senator Fields is of the belief that a caucus should be called and it is possible that he will call one unless the committee and the members who are against such a move prevail upon him to await the debate in the open house.

Meeting of Clio Club.

The following program was carried out at today's meeting of the Clio club: Paper on "Madam de Stael and the French Salon," by Miss Joseph; paper on "Cathedrals of France," by Miss Snead.

At the meeting to be held next week a surprise will be presented, the details of which will not be ready to publication until after the rendition of the program. The members of the club, however, will present a drama on that date.

"CARRIE" IN VAUDEVILLE

JOHNNIE HEGERTY WOULD GIVE A "RESOLUTION" TO SEE HER IN TIGHTS.

WILL NOT HAVE THAT PLEASURE, THOUGH

Letting on "Booze" and Tobacco and Then Passes Through Audience and Sells Miniature Hatch-ets at a Sixpence.

London, Jan. 28.—Carrie Nation, the champion catch-as-catch-can saloon smasher of America, has broken into vaudeville and is appearing this week at the Paragon and Canterbury theaters.

Carrie is not doing a Salome stunt or a Spring dance. Her "turn" consists of a characteristic lecture on the evils of booze and 'bacco, after which she passes among the audience selling miniature hatchets and pamphlets at a sixpence a throw.

She is proving a great attraction in vaudeville and the houses where she is playing alternately are always crowded.

After completing her engagement in London, Carrie is booked for Cardiff, Wales, where she has signed up for a lengthy engagement at 100 pounds a week and her "keep."

A JUROR IN TROUBLE

Swore He Was Unbiased and Now
Must Face Perjury Charge.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 28.—In the Cooper murder trial today Judge Hart held that the evidence tended to show that Juror Leigh was biased and prejudiced and excused him from service. The attorney for the state then swore out a warrant for Leigh's arrest and he was bound over to the grand jury on a charge of perjury.

VICTIMS OF A COLLISION

THE REMAINS OF MR. AND MRS.
L. J. EZELL ARRIVED HERE
THIS AFTERNOON.

INTERMENT AT LONGWOOD TOMORROW

Were Former Members of Salem
Church—Resolutions in Respect of the Deceased Adopted
By the Board.

The bodies of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ezell, two victims of the D. & R. G. wreck, who succumbed to their injuries at Glenwood Springs, Colo., last week, accompanied by a party of relatives, arrived in Sedalia over the Missouri Pacific at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

An unusually large concourse of friends assembled at the train to meet the remains, which were taken to the undertaking parlors of McLaughlin Bros.

The bodies will be conveyed to Miller's chapel, near Beaman, tomorrow, where at 11 a. m. funeral services will be conducted, after which interment will be made at Longwood.

Among the funeral party which accompanied the bodies was the minor daughter, Margaret, of the dead people, who also sustained injuries in the wreck from which she has not fully recovered.

As a token of esteem in memory of the dead the following resolutions have been adopted by members of the Salem church, of Beaman, a copy of which follows:

Whereas, the people of this community and the members of Salem church (near Beaman) learn with sorrow and sadness of the serious railroad disaster in Colorado, in which accident Brother and Sister Ezell both lost their lives while they were on their way to the state of California.

And whereas, Brother and Sister Ezell were for many years true and devoted members of Salem church and at all times took special interest in the welfare of the church and were both ready always to do for the church cheerfully whatever they could find to do, and while Brother and Sister Ezell have for the past few years resided in North Dakota and their membership changed from our church roll, yet the memory of their personal efforts for Salem will long remain with us.

Therefore, in the sudden ending of these truly Christian lives, the church loses two of its purest and most ardent workers, and we are again reminded of the uncertainty of life and the affecting scenes through which we may pass, and to try to be assured that our preparation has been made for eternity. May the reward of Brother and Sister Ezell be brighter than earth can give. Their spirits have gone to answer before a tribunal who can judge, who is pure in spirit and who have waged a true Christian warfare.

Resolved, that the sympathy of the members of the church be extended to the children and a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to them and that a like copy be placed upon the records of the church.

I, N. DANFORTH,
BENJAMIN PORTER,
WM. C. MONSEES,
Stewards.

RETRACTS THE CHARGE

THAT A FEMALE RELATIVE CON-SPIRED TO RUIN HIS DAUGHTER.

SAYS THAT HE MUST HAVE BEEN CRAZED

Another Chapter in the Killing of a St. Louis Traveling Man for the Alleged Ruining of a Mississippi Girl.

Columbus, Miss., Jan. 28.—According to his admission, Charles R. Smith, one of the wealthiest men in Mississippi, charged with killing E. A. Laurant, St. Louis traveling man, for alleged betrayal of his daughter, Estelle, an only child, whose mother had been dead for several years, must have been insane when he tried to draw his relative, Miss Letitia King, member of a prominent Alabama family, into the scandal that has set tongues to talking in nearly every southern state.

Arraigned before the court to listen to the reading of the indictment charging him with murder Smith broke down completely, and after brushing tears away entered a plea of "not guilty."

Then he said he must have been temporarily crazy when he testified in a preliminary hearing to the effect that Miss King, a relative of his, had been associated in a conspiracy to accomplish the ruin of Estelle.

Smith has previously caused to be printed and scattered broadcast here and in adjacent cities circulars signed by him that he has wrongfully accused his relative, Miss King, brought here by her father and brother, who declare her name must be eliminated by court procedure as well as by Smith's confessions.

A LETTER OF WARNING

Received by Secretary of Retail Merchants' Association.

C. C. Lawson, secretary of the Retail Merchants' association of Sedalia, today received from the manager of the Merchants' Credit company, of St. Joseph, a letter requesting him and members of the association to be on the lookout for an organized band of alleged swindlers who are now thought to be canvassing Sedalia with the purpose, so they say, of publishing a booklet known as "The Credit Experience Guide."

The letter states representatives of the band are now in Sedalia and their scheme is to visit business houses, secure permission to inspect the respective ledgers and ascertain the house's business, after which they submit their proposition to furnish the firm with their booklet, which calls for a payment of $16 in advance.

Several requests had already reached Mr. Lawson's office about the men in question, prior to the receipt of the letter, but no action had been taken, as the local association was not familiar with the plan.

NO NEBRASKA EARTHQUAKE

Concussion There Declared Due to Fall of Meteor.

Norfolk, Neb., Jan. 28.—A telegram received from Neligh show that what people in Pierce and Knox counties Tuesday thought was an earthquake was a tremendous crash of the air due to the falling of a 100-pound meteor.

The meteor fell near Neligh, and was dug up still burning. Thirty miles away the report resembled a powder explosion, and frightened men, horses and cattle.

STREET CAR FARES GO UP

FIVE-CENT RATE IS RESTORED ON THE NICKEL LINES IN CLEVELAND.

THIS MEANS EIGHT CENTS FOR NUMBER

Police Called to Avert Riot Among
Thousands of 3-Cent Advocates
Who Crowd Municipal Traction Meeting.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 28.—Street car fares will be raised Monday. Negotiations for a settlement are off for the present. Five-cent fare, eleven tickets for 50 cents, will be the rate on old Cleveland electric lines; 3 cents will be the rate for old "three-for" lines.

Transfers may not be given between the old systems, which will mean 8-cent fare for many working men. Three lines running across the city will be split at the public square.

At the close of the peace conference yesterday City Solicitor Baker announced for Judge Taylor that although negotiations for a settlement will be resumed at a later date, a raise in fare must be put in effect Monday.

The conferees had to give up because they could not agree upon a franchise that the Cleveland Railway Company would accept.

The annual meeting of the Cleveland Railway Company was stamped by original Municipal Traction Company stockholders in the Electric building yesterday. The room was not large enough to hold all those present, and those on the edges crowded forward.

A call for police aid brought patrolmen to the scene. Women and men crowded from the outer rooms into the office of the company, causing the meeting to break up.

BABY'S NECK IS BROKEN

Together With Its Will By Father,
Who Is Sent to Prison.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 28.—John David Stewart was tried when he came home at night after his work. He had heard the clanging of machinery and tools all day and quiet was what he wanted. But there was no quiet at his home.

A little girl, 10 months old, was part of the Stewart family. She cried, as babies will. Stewart choked the baby. He shook it hard and then slammed it down on the bed and told his wife to care for it. Baby's temper was broken. So was its neck. The coroner and the doctors said Stewart killed his child.

Tuesday in criminal court Stewart withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the fourth degree. His sentence to the penitentiary was for two years.

DEATH OF A DRUGGIST

Henry T. McArtor Died at His Home
In Lamonte Today.

Henry T. McArtor, one of Lamonte's oldest and most popular citizens, died at his home there at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon, the result of a case of catarrhal pneumonia, with which he had been ill for the past year, aged 65 years.

Deceased was born in Loudoun county, Virginia, but came to Missouri at an early date, and had been engaged in the drug business at Lamonte for the past thirty years. He was well known by all in that community, and was highly respected.

He leaves a wife, son and daughter. The funeral arrangements have not been made.

EDNA WALLACE HOPPER SUED

Return of Bankrupt Broker's Automobile Gift Is Sought.

New York, Jan. 28.—Charles E. Littlefield, trustee in bankruptcy for A. O. Brown & Co., the defunct brokerage firm, filed papers in an action in the United States circuit court yesterday against Edna Wallace Hopper, the actress, and A. O. Brown, asking the defendants to account for the value of an automobile and a life insurance policy and for judgment to that amount.

The automobile is valued at $7,000 and the policy was for $25,000. Mr. Littlefield says these things were given to the actress by Brown without proper consideration.

GETTING SORT OF HOT AROUND THE SENATE.

The United States senate is said to be worried over the spread of the "Oregon idea," by which is meant the application of popular primary elections to the choice of senators.

We hope this is true. For in proportion as the senate has cause to be worried, the people have cause to rejoice.

The spread of the "Oregon idea" is the best thing that has happened to the country in 122 years. The fact that it has spread to twenty-seven states should fill each citizen with twenty-seven varieties of thanksgiving. And then there should be room for a prayer for the nineteen states into which the "Oregon idea" has not yet penetrated.

In its final working out, the "Oregon idea" will furnish a way to secure the popular election of United States senators. The only other way to this result was by an amendment to the constitution, and that has been blocked by the senate itself.

The senate has been guilty of a grave wrong in this matter. It is provided by the constitution that amendments shall originate in a two-thirds vote of congress, and that such proposals shall be submitted to the legislatures of the states, or to constitutional conventions called for such purposes.

In spite of the fact that the legislatures of no less than twenty states have passed resolutions favoring such an amendment, the senate has consistently refused to consider or vote on this proposition, and thus has refused to give the people their constitutional right to consider and vote upon it.

It thus comes about that the people have taken the affair into their own hands, and are amending the constitution in the same way as they did that part applying to the election of a president. Instructions to their representatives is the remedy for misrepresentation.

The spread of the "Oregon idea" is the spread of popular government. Let it spread!

LAW SHOULD REQUIRE WIRELESS ON SHIPS.

The collision of the steamers Republic and Florida and the rescue of 1,600 souls on board the two ships make perhaps the most extraordinary maritime accident that has ever occurred. While the story of this near-catastrophe is replete with sensational and thrilling incidents from the moment the wandering Italian strayed into the path of the outward-bound White Star liner until the passengers of both vessels were landed safely in New York, the rescue of the 760 persons on board the Republic stands out in bold relief as the climax of the ocean drama. For the fact that they are alive today, these 760 persons, or the most of them, owe thanks to the wireless telegraph.

A few mysterious waves of something vibrating and traveling through space, annihilating time and distance, brought from a half dozen sources at most instantaneous succor to the imperiled cargo of humanity far out upon the Atlantic, huddled on the decks of a sinking steamship in an impenetrable fog. These air-jaded messages of appeal, emanating in every direction, falling upon the recording instrument of a steamship here and there on the Atlantic's bosom and on other vessels at anchor in distant ports, calling from unknown and unseen places ships of rescue that hurried toward the scene of distress, telling them where to rendezvous, giving news even at the same time to the whole outside world, relatives and friends, of the accident, and describing the situation of peril as it then existed on that lonely spot of a great ocean, compose the nearest approach to a miracle since the time of Christ.

This single achievement of wireless telegraphy, which has been looked upon by many as having vague and erratic merits, renders the invention an invaluable and indispensable complement of every important steamship.

We think congress should enact a law requiring every passenger ship which navigates to and from American ports to install the wireless equipment as an additional safeguard to life.

With the watertight bulkhead, which if adequately provided and properly operated, will keep any stoutly built vessel afloat for many hours after a most damaging collision, to retard or prevent sinking, and wireless instruments to summon aid, disasters like those which have resulted so many times in years gone by when ships came together, would be practically impossible.

The air compartments of the Republic, which were honestly built and promptly closed, must share honors with the wireless, for without them the vessel with its mortal wound would have sunk within a few minutes and hours before the arrival of the first relief craft. Compulsory equipment of steamships with ample watertight bulkheads and wireless telegraph is a need that should be supplied promptly by law.

SHOULD REDEEM OUR SELF-RESPECT.

The facts set forth in the report of former Governor Magoon of the provisional government of Cuba concerning the sunken battleship Maine had passed out of the memory of most persons. We had as a people forgotten that the wreck in Havana harbor, which was the cause of an international war, contained the bodies of sixty-three gallant American sailors, who went down in the ill-fated vessel. We had almost forgotten that the warship still lay at the bottom where it sank and that no serious effort had been made by the government to raise it. We had ceased to appreciate the importance of the fact that the removal of the bulk would in all probability determine the real cause of the ship's destruction and eliminate all doubt as to responsibility for the disaster.

Now comes Governor Magoon with the statement that it is the general belief, or at least assertion of Spaniards and many others in Cuba, that the failure of the United States to raise the Maine is because it will show that the battleship was not blown up by enemies, but that its sinking was the result of an interior explosion.

"So generally does this opinion prevail," says Magoon, "that I believe the Cuban government was deterred thereby from dealing with the wreck as an obstruction to navigation of its coastal waters and destroying it."

With this suspicion against the incident of Spain for the destruction of the Maine, we agree with Magoon that it is the duty of our government to have the wreck removed intact, and cause a thorough investigation to be made with a view to ascertaining and authentically establishing the cause of the disaster.

The former executive of Cuba feels that the neglect of the wreck, with its gruesome contents, is in itself a national reproach and an international scandal, and in that opinion many also will concur. We should say there was every reason why the wreck should be removed and none against it. The expense is a mere nothing in comparison with the objects to be gained and the belated redemption of our self-respect.

AVERTS PANIC IN THEATER

Harry B. Powers' Coolness Prevents Possible Catastrophe.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—Owing to the coolness of Manager Harry B. Powers, an audience in Powers' theater last night remained calm while a fire raged in an adjoining building.

When Mr. Powers smelled smoke entering the auditorium, and noticed an uneasy shifting of feet in the gallery, he stepped to the middle aisle and said:

"Ladies and gentlemen, there is a small fire in the building next door. It will soon be put out, and if you will remain quietly in your seats the performance will go on."

This appeared to allay all anxiety and the performance continued without interruption. The fire loss was small.

The purchase is said to be the first step in a great war between the American Smelting and Refining company and the International. The latter company intends to purchase a chain of smelters in this republic, according to reports in mining circles.

$100,000 CAME TOO LATE

THE MONEY LEFT TO WOMAN WHO HAS BATTLED WITH POVERTY ALL HER LIFE

SHE IS NOW EIGHTY-ONE YEARS OF AGE

One-Half of an Estate of $200,000 Is Left to Mrs. Martha Hulbert by Her Cousin, Miss Louise Swain, of Detroit.

Marshall, Mich., Jan. 28.—"It has come too late. The only pleasure that this money can bring me now is to divide it up among my children," said Mrs. Martha Hulbert, who, after battling with poverty all her life, now, at the age of 81, finds herself in possession of a fortune approximating $100,000.

Mrs. Hulbert, up to the time of the death of her husband, a laborer, three years ago, lived in Eaton Rapids.

Of late she has been living with her daughter, Mrs. William Morey, wife of a carriage painter.

A short time ago Mrs. Hulbert received a letter from her cousin, Albert McKee, of Lagrange, Ill., informing her that they had been left an estate of $200,000 by the death of their cousin, Miss Louise Swain, of Detroit. Mrs. Hulbert has three daughters and two sons.

ECZEMA CURABLE? PROVEN!

Attorney at Moline, Ill., Convinced by Oil of Wintergreen Compound.

There is nothing that will convince a lawyer except evidence.

Now, here is some rather startling evidence of a simple home cure for eczema which convinced one lawyer, P. C. Entrieken, attorney at Moline, Ill. He tells how oil of wintergreen compound, mixed with glycerol and glycerine, as in D. D. D. Prescription, cured him in thirty days after thirty-two years of suffering.

"For 32 years," writes Attorney Entrieken, "I was troubled with eczema, scabs all over my face, body and head. I could run a hair brush over my body and the floor would be covered with scales enough to fill a basket. I tried everything—salves, internal medicine, X-Ray—all without result."

"Just a month ago I was induced to try D. D. D. Prescription. The itch was relieved instantly; so I continued. It is just a month now and I am completely cured. I have not a particle of itch and the scales have dropped off."

"I can only say again CURE DISCOVERED. I am now starting all eczema sufferers on the right track."

Cure after cure has been brought to our attention and always that instant relief from the awful itch.—W. E. Bard Drug Co.

APPROPRIATED STATE FUNDS

Former State Treasurer of Michigan Convicted.

Lansing, Mich., Jan. 28.—Ex-State Treasurer Frank P. Glazier, whose failure in December, 1907, resulted in the closing of the Chelsea Savings bank, of which Glazier was head, and which had on deposit about $85,000 of state funds, was last afternoon found guilty of misappropriating state funds. Glazier's attorneys gave notice of appeal, and he was released on $10,000 bail.

Mr. Glazier, until his failure in December, 1907, was regarded as a man of large wealth. When Banking Commissioner Zimmerman closed the Chelsea Savings bank, it was learned that the institution was heavily overloaned to Glazier, and to enterprises of which he was the head.

KILLS CLERK; SHOTS WIFE

Black Hills Merchant's Return Home Was Unexpected.

Wasta, S. D., Jan. 28.—Edward Morris, a prominent Black Hills merchant, killed David Jennings, a clerk in his store, and dangerously wounded his wife Tuesday night.

Morris left town and returned unexpectedly during the night, entering his home by a rear window. He found Jennings there and killed him instantly, a moment later firing a bullet into his wife's body. She will probably recover.

Jennings had been a clerk in Morris' store and boarded at his employer's home.

After the shooting Morris went to Rapid City and gave himself up to the sheriff being later released on $3,000 bond.

BATTLE BETWEEN RACES

White and Negro Youths' Fight Ends Fatally in Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 28.—Race feeling inspired a battle between white boys and negro youths here last night which culminated in the death of one boy and the probable fatal injury of two others, all white, from knife wounds.

The alleged murderer, a colored high school student, was arrested and pleads self-defense.

Why and Wherefore.

A minister one day found a little boy in tears and questioned him as to the cause of his distress. The youngster replied that his father had punished him for being naughty, and he was mighty glad that his mother hadn't done it.

"Why do you prefer to have your father whip you?" questioned the minister. "Is it because he is less severe than your mother?"

"No," replied the boy, "but when he kicks me he says he's a brute and always gives me money to buy candy."

A Golden Opportunity to Make a Fortune in a Few Months!

Do YOU wish to make an investment in OLD MEXICO LAND that will easily DOUBLE or TREBLE in value inside of ONE YEAR?

500,000 ACRES of these lands owned by our company are thrown on the market at a ridiculously low price and on long and most favorable terms, enabling every man, woman or child in America to secure a plantation in this magnificent country. We are settling this country with sturdy German and American farmers who will soon demonstrate what energy and push when applied to these fertile lands will do.

We have PERSONALLY inspected these lands and thoroughly investigated the HEALTH, CLIMATE and numerous other features of this section of the REPUBLIC, and after summing the whole of it up, we do not hesitate to say to the PEOPLE of Sedalia, Pettis County, or anywhere else, that it is beyond any shadow of doubt in our minds, the GREATEST opportunity of which we have ever known to get in on the GROUND FLOOR with a small amount of money and reap a bounteous harvest. The best evidence we have to offer as to our sincerity of these statements, and our judgment as to the possibilities of this country, is the fact that we have bought every acre of it that we are able to buy, and it is not through any selfish motive that we ask the people to invest in this land. We are not asking you to buy something that we are not willing to buy ourselves.

THERE are several developed plantations in this country that will demonstrate to any one the golden opportunities there. There is one plantation adjoining these lands that is capitalized at $300 per acre that last year paid a dividend, over and above all expenses, of 9 per cent. There are developed plantations within 100 miles of these lands that you cannot buy for $500 per acre. High lands a few years ago sold at $10 to $12 per acre. We urgently court investigation of these statements.

The Beautiful East Gulf Coast Country

Our lands are located on one of the best transcontinental lines of railroad in America; Being a short distance from both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans, there is a constant and invigorating sea breeze blowing. This is a land far richer than the fertile valleys of the Nile, where every fruit, flower and grain grows almost spontaneously, a land where winter frosts and snows are unknown, a land without droughts, blizzards or hailstorms and with the most equable and even climate to be found on the American continent.

THIS IS YOUR LAST CHANCE TO SECURE GOOD, CHEAP LAND AT AN EXTREMELY LOW PRICE!

And on long and favorable terms in one of the most favored and fertile, agricultural sections on this continent. Blessed with an abundance of rainfall, a rich productive soil, a delightful climate and the best railroad and water transportation facilities to be had. These lands are sure to advance rapidly in price and in a comparatively short time will be selling at the price lands growing similar products are now selling in the United States, $100 to $300 per acre.

Remember, You Can Buy 40 Acres of This Land With a Small Payment Down and a Small Payment Each Month

And in a short time you will have paid for your land which will produce a greater variety of crops, and more valuable than 160 acres of land in the United States. We enable you to buy 160 or 640 acres of this excellent land at a less price than you would be compelled to pay for a town lot in an ordinary village.

You can buy 5,000 acres of these lands at a low price and on long and favorable terms, and will cost you less money than 320 acres of Illinois or Iowa land, and every acre of this Mexico land will produce more than any acre of land in Illinois or Iowa. The lands of this section of Mexico will grow oranges, lemons, limes, pineapples, mangoes, rice, rubber, coffee, sugar cane, corn, tobacco and cotton. Space forbids mentioning the great variety of products which grow successfully here.

Do not confuse these lands with the dry, arid lands of the northern and western part of Mexico, but recollect we have an abundance of rainfall, a delightful climate and a deep rich soil. Here is the garden of the republic. You can step off a Pullman onto our lands where we are building an American town, surrounded by prosperous American people. Do not hesitate as these lands will advance in price from month to month.

BUY NOW!

Do not wait until these lands have advanced double and treble in value and then censure yourself for not listening to our timely suggestion that you buy—and buy every acre that you can possibly raise a dollar with which to make your first payment. The balance will be easy.

Our next excursion to these lands will be on February the 3d. but tickets must be bought on February 2nd, and we again beg to insist that you make an extra effort to accompany us on that date, because expense is nothing compared with the pleasure and profits of a trip like this will be. President E. F. O'Neill of the New York state branch, in a statement yesterday, said the prevailing high prices of meat are caused largely by the absorption of range lands by the small farmer, and by the high price of corn.

Sledded Down Hill on Shovel—Needs a New Pair of Pants.

Winsted, Conn., Jan. 28.—A foreigner living on the summit of Plymouth Hill, in Thomaston, and employed in a factory at the foot of the hill, found the steep road so icy yesterday that it was unsafe for walking, so he conceived the brilliant idea of sledding down to the level, a distance of one mile, seated on a large iron scoop shovel.

Midway down the hill the friction became so great that he began to feel a burning sensation, but he could not get out of the shovel and was afraid to steer himself to one side of the road for fear of severely injuring himself against a rock. So he slid the entire distance.

He was so badly burned that he had to be treated by a physician and buy a new pair of trousers.

A POSITIVE CURE FOR INDIGESTION

If you have indigestion, your food ferments in the stomach and bowels. It does more; it decays, and the nutritious matter which should go to make new blood decays with it, and this leads to an impoverished condition of the blood, to nervousness, biliousness, constipation, sick headache, bad breath which disgusts your friends, and other disagreeable and unpleasant conditions.

And all this trouble is caused by the food that doesn't digest, but ferments and offends in the stomach.

And fermentation is caused by the stomach not being strong enough and energetic enough to thoroughly mix the food with the digestive juices.

MIO-NA is responsible for tens of thousands of cures. In fact, it is such a positive cure for indigestion and all stomach troubles that it is guaranteed by W. E. Bard Drug Co. to cure or money back. The price of a large box of Mio-na tablets is 50 cents, and they are sure to promptly relieve the worst case of indigestion or gastritis. Try them.

RUMBLINGS OF THE RAIL

GOULD TRAFFIC CHIEF TESTIFIED IN RAILROAD JUNCTION CASE.

COACH CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Before a special master in chancery in Chicago railroad traffic officials told of the dire results which, in their opinion, would happen should the decision of the interstate commerce commission in the Missouri river rate case be upheld. In the opinion of some, it would mean an almost complete destruction of the Missouri and Mississippi river cities as great jobbing centers, should the through rate making theory of the commission be carried out to its logical conclusion.

The federal court, three judges sitting en banc, ordered an injunction restraining the enforcement of the rates ordered by the commission until the entire subject would be inquired into.

The decision of the commission was revolutionary in character because it established the principle that through rates should be less than the sums of any two local rates.

J. M. Johnson, vice president of the Missouri Pacific, in charge of traffic, was the principal witness of the day.

Harriman is a Director.

With Edward H. Harriman's formal election to the New York Central directorate in New York yesterday, the family of Vanderbilts was retired from active railroad management to the position of minority interests.

Harriman's election means more than appears on the surface. It marks an epoch in American railroad-ing.

E. C. Clarke and Samuel E. Barger resigned from the board and Mr. Harriman and W. C. Brown were named to replace them.

No Dividend on the Big Four.

The directors of the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railroad, known as the Big Four, did not declare a dividend on the common stock of that company in New York yesterday. There was no dividend on this stock a year ago.

W. C. Brown, succeeded Alexander McDonald of Cincinnati as a director of the road and was elected president to succeed W. H. Newman, resigned. Mr. Newman also was president of the New York Central.

Another Raise in Salary.

SALOON THOUGHT NO. 63.

We can see why shops and manufacturing is of help to us as a city, they give a chance for our citizens to exchange their services for that which is a comfort to their families. When people are making themselves more comfortable they are always helping others, and in this way we can see how our merchants are benefited. But for the life of us we don't see how SALOONS that take the money, health, happiness, and everything that commences to make his family comfortable and happy can be a source of prosperity. We can't understand how anything that takes the family's earnings and finally STOPS their earnings, can be of use to us, but a serious handicap. Experience in OTHER cities and states PROVES that it is NOT, and we honestly believe that the most of the citizens believe that saloons are a handicap to prosperity, progress, happiness, morality, virtue and in fact ALL that makes a better people. We have faith in the majority of the intelligent residents of Missouri that they can see that saloons are nothing but a cancerous growth on the body of society.

WISER THAN ROOSEVELT

Mr. Flagler Considers the Taft Product of Best in American Life.

Pittsburg, Pa., Jan. 28.—John H. Flagler, founder of the National Tube works, now a part of the United States Steel corporation, at a banquet given him last night by the "old guard" or men who worked in the mills he erected here in 1879, declared that the tariff should be removed entirely from politics.

"The present methods by which tariffs are decided on are absurd," he said. "The tariff should not be settled by politicians, but by co-operation of labor and capital."

Discussing President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft, Mr. Flagler said:

"Co-operation and brotherhood are the goals of the future, and the Roosevelt policies, which so many deprecate, I believe to have been, in spite of the mistakes and exaggerations of our retiring president, a happy relief from the great dangers to the country from reckless individualism."

"Now a wiser man in law and administration than Mr. Roosevelt will be the nation's head. Never in the history of our government has one so well equipped for the presidency been sent to the White House. He can be called the product and producer of the best in American life. He has given confidence to us all and will lead us into new lands of promise."

Detroit, Mich., Jan. 28.—"I'll do it to findlay to save my boy. I'm penniless now, but I'll work until I get enough. He was good to me and I don't care what he did with another woman. I love him; that is enough."

Tears welled in the eyes of Mrs. Sam L. Reiman as she spoke. She is the wife of the 22-year-old boy taken back to Findlay, O., for perjury. Bigamy is the charge, but neither the wife nor the second woman will make the complaint, so great is their love for the frail feminine-faced boy.

Mrs. Reiman married him when he was 16, and they lived happily with their child, now 4 years old, until he was torn from her by the law to answer this charge last Saturday.

"He was young and made a mistake of youth, that is all. I hold nothing against him. The other woman? Poor girl! I have only pity for her."

UNDER SWEETHEART'S BED

The Young Man Wanted by the Police Was Found.

Dixon, Ill., Jan. 28.—Lulu Johnson, a 19-year-old sophomore of Dixon college, was found in her room last evening by the police with her sweetheart, John Hayes, wanted for the theft of $100 from a friend in Sterling, concealed under her bed.

She stated later that she had been keeping him there for three days. In the meantime the police and detectives in Lee and Whiteside counties have been looking in vain for him.

He was discovered late last night by a neighbor who was visiting the home of Miss Johnson's landlady, and saw the girl taking food to him. She reported to the police, who raided the room and, after having searched the house thoroughly, found the young man concealed in a comforter under the girl's bed. He was taken to Morrison and is now in the Whiteside county jail.

THIS MAN MADE HISTORY

CHARLES GEORGE GORDON, WHO WAS BORN IN WOOLWICH,
ENG., 72 YEARS AGO.

WAS BETTER KNOWN AS CHINESE GORDON

Was Also Called "Gordon Pasha," and His Tragic Death Is Still First in the Minds of the Reading People.

London, Jan. 28.—Seventy-six years ago this day, in the town of Woolwich, England, was born one of Great Britain's most famous soldiers, Charles George Gordon, better known as "Chinese Gordon" and "Gordon Pasha." His tragic death is still fresh in the minds of most readers of history.

Gordon entered the Royal Engineers in 1852, and quickly demonstrated his military greatness. From 1872 to 1879 he was governor of the Sudan under the khedive. In 1883 he was sent to the aid of the garrisons "bottled up" in the Sudan by the rebel mahdi. His force proved insufficient to overcome the frantic hordes of the mahdi, and he was himself shut up in Khartum by the insurgents. For a year, against great odds, he gallantly held the town, and the incidents of this defense of Khartum are among the most picturesque and tragic in the history of British imperialism.

At last a large expedition under Lord Wolseley was sent to his relief, but it arrived too late. An advance corps reached Khartum late in January of 1885, only to find that the town had been treacherously betrayed into the hands of the mahdi two days before, and Gordon murdered. He died a martyr to British red tape which had delayed so long the attempt at his rescue.

Gordon's greatest monument is the modern Sudan and its capital, Khartum. Since the tragic day twenty-four years ago, when Gordon met his fate, Khartum has grown into a noble city, which as you approach it by the Soudan government railway, the desert railway which Kitchener built, is seen in a beautiful setting of palm trees, among which rises the splendid white palaces of the governor-general. It has public gardens, a church, a hotel and on the river a fine steamer is at the service of tourists who wish to make excursions. The territory of which it is the capital is under a system of government which has produced wonderful results. The revenue of the Sudan in 1898, when the English took it over, was estimated at £8,000, though it proved to be £25,000. Eight years later it was estimated at over £800,000. Last year it exceeded a million. There was in 1907 an increase of more than 40 per cent over the preceding year in the area under cultivation, although the Nile was one of the lowest ever known.

Khartum stands at the confluence of the Blue Nile and the White Nile, on the tongue of land between the two rivers. In the palace of the governor general is what for Englishmen is a sacred spot—the room, which has been built into the new palace, where Gordon met his death. Among the sights are the cantonments, where contingents of twenty Soudanese tribes are encamped, so that the curious may see them living under their own conditions—the fierce Baggara Arabs, the Jaalin, the cannibal Nyam-Nyams and others. At Omdurman can be seen remains of the mahdi's tomb, destroyed after the occupation, the khalfa's house exactly as he left it, the great market, the Gebel Surgham, the hill on which the khalfa sat and watched the battle which broke up his power.

Ten years ago the khalfa, the head of the Mahdist movement, was still alive, for it was not until November 24, 1899, that Colonel (now Lieutenant General Sir Francis) Wingate struck the last blow at the remnant of the mahdist forces at Omderekat.

'CUBA LIBRE' ONCE MORE

THE FLAG ONCE MORE FLOATS
OVER A FREE AND INDEPENDENT NATION.

GOV. MAGOON RELINQUISHED HIS CARES

Today's Ceremonies Marked the End of the Second Period of American Intervention in the Island.

Havana, Jan. 28.—This afternoon the flag of "Cuba Libre" floats once more over a free and independent nation—floats proudly from the palace wherein President Alfredo Zayas took the oath of office and where Governor Magoon, the beneficent dictator of Uncle Sam, relinquished the cares and trials of government. Today's ceremonies marked the end of the second period of American intervention in the island, which began with the breaking out of the revolution in August, 1906, against the government of the late President Tomas Estrada Palma.

Tomorrow Magoon will sail for Washington, to render an account of his stewardship to President Roosevelt. For nearly two years he has ruled over the island as the head of the provisional government terminated today. That he has won the respect and admiration of the Cubans was abundantly manifested today, when he shared largely in the ovation tendered the new President and Vice President.

Elaborate ceremonies marked the inauguration of President Gomez and Vice President Zayas, which took place shortly after noon today. Diplomats from all nations filled the palace, their gay uniforms adding to the picturesque scene. A parade rivaling that to be held in Washington on March 4 passed through the streets and under a magnificent arch of triumph. Scores of hands played, flags floated for nearly every building of the capital and the populace gave vent to its enthusiasm in every imaginable manner. Several American warships, including the new Maine, were successors of the vessel of that name which went down in Havana harbor, are here and fired a national salute. The United States troops and sailors now remaining in the island did not participate in today's ceremonies, as it was thought that their presence might detract from the pride of the people in the hour of their resumption of home rule.

Although the American soldiers will not be finally withdrawn until the first of April, they will make themselves as inconspicuous as possible, and the khaki-clad Cuban rural guard and Havana police, dressed in gendarme fashion, will have the entire responsibility for the maintenance of order.

Today was chosen for the inauguration of the new President and Vice President and the re-establishment of the independent republic because it is the birthday anniversary of Jose Marti, the great liberator and patriot of Cuba.

Following today's inaugural ceremonies, the Cubans will begin the actual work of government and what may be their final opportunity for demonstrating their ability for self-rule. While few doubt the integrity and ability of the new chief executive of the republic, his party is a hodge-podge of many warring elements and internecine strife may bring the governmental edifice toppling about his ears, despite his best efforts to bolster it up. The Liberal party, which elected Gomez, has an overwhelming majority in each house. Its legislative program includes revision of the tariff, liberal educational work of government and what may be their final opportunity for demonstrating their ability for self-rule.

The Conservative membership of each house is only sufficient to cover the constitutional requirement that there be a minority party. There is little difference, however, in the principles of the two parties.

Governor Magoon has proclaimed strict rules concerning the quorum of two-thirds of the membership of each branch and regarding the leaves of absence, indicating that the legislators' attendance and pay closer regard to the business of the island than heretofore. It was careless attendance and neglect of public business that helped to bring trouble under the first period of self-government. Governor Magoon's utterances on this point are expected to cause much discussion and probably will be legislated upon when Congress begins its grind.

General Carlos Garcia Velez will go to Washington to succeed Senor Quesada, the Cuban minister, who will be offered a similar post at Paris of Madrid. General Velez is now superintendent of prisons. He was a leader in the revolt in 1906. He was formerly minister to Mexico, which post he resigned at President Palma's request. Senor Montoro will remain as minister at London.

The second period of American intervention in Cuba has been made as unobtrusive as possible. The American flag has been raised only over the camps of the American soldiers and marines outside the city.

All Cubans, except a few who profess to fear disorder, are greatly pleased over the leaving of the American forces as marking the complete re-establishment of independence. All show the kindest feelings toward the troops.

It was on May 20, 1902, that the American flag, hoisted after the war with Spain, was first replaced by that of Cuba. This first republic, for which the Cubans vainly fought Spain so many years, lasted little more than the period between Presidential elections in the United States. In September, 1906, a company of marines landed at the palace from the United States cruiser Denver, halted a victorious revolutionary army on the outskirts of Havana, and American intervention, which first came against a foreign power, was again a fact—this time to set things right among the Cubans themselves.

Chicago, Jan. 28.—"All children are born liars," says Prof. E. V. O'Shea, of the University of Wisconsin, in Chicago to deliver an educational address.

In an explanation on his assertion he declared that he has four children and that they are "as big liars as any in the sense he describes."

"It is a child's nature," he said, "to color things when he explains and this should be taken into consideration by parents."

Free Laxative Cured Legions

Realizing how difficult it is to convince the average person that one remedy is different from another, even though recommended for the same purpose, and that where one fails the other may still succeed, the dispensers of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound, have for several years sent free trial bottles of the remedy to any person who would send name and address.

Through this offer many hundred thousand samples have been distributed. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has never been recommended for anything but such conditions as constipation, liver trouble, biliousness, sour stomach, indigestion, flatulency, dyspepsia, sick headache, heartburn and similar symptoms of stomach, liver and bowel disease. That it will cure such troubles is attested by the experience of Mrs. Lydia Dixon, of Mingo, Ky.; Mrs. N. Cunningham, of Talent, Ore.; St. R. Tucker, of Hattiesburg, Miss.; and a host of others. They originally sent for the free trial bottle, and then, being convinced that the remedy was helping them, they bought the regular 50-cent or $1 size bottle of their druggist, and in a short while were cured.

While Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is sold by druggists with the guarantee that it will do as claimed or money will be refunded, yet any reader suffering from a stomach, liver or bowel complaint is invited to write to Dr. Caldwell at the address below for a free trial bottle, which will be cheerfully sent. We doubt if there is a laxative in America that has so many families using it in the living to its special ingredients it has proven a great life-saver of children, women and old folks. It is pleasant to take and never gripes.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. E. Bard, 509 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Legal lights from all over the Empire state are here for the meeting, which will continue through tomorrow.

"The Regulation of the Introduction of Medical Expert Testimony" is one of the principal topics of discussion. It is declared that recent trials for murder have shown the necessity for some sort of regulation of this class of witnesses.

Francis Lynde Stetson, president of the association, will deliver an address on "The Lawyer's Livelihood," and ex-Senator Spooner will deliver the annual address, his subject being "The Power of Congress Under the 'Commerce Clause' Over State Corporations Engaged in Interstate or Foreign Commerce."

Other papers to be given during the meeting include: "The Judicial Committee of the Privy Council" Walter Nesbitt, K. C., Toronto, Canada.

ALL READY FOR SALOME

REHEARSALS HAVE BEEN PROGRESSING SINCE FIRST OF DECEMBER.

DRAMA BASED ON OSCAR WILDE'S POEM

Here is a Dispatch Printed for the Special Edification of Henry Otten and Prof. Charles Hartenbach.

New York, Jan. 28.—Nearly two months of preparation will culminate tonight in the production at the Manhattan opera house of Richard Strauss' musical drama based on Oscar Wilde's poem, "Salome." Rehearsals have been going on almost continuously since the first of December.

The only way in which "Salome" is indescribably complex score could be studied by the musicians was by the alternate rehearsals of the various so-called choirs of the orchestra.

Such a combination of instruments had never been gotten together before. For instance, there is a hecklophon, which Strauss conceived and had designed and made expressly for use in "Salome." It is a monster oboe and furnishes the bass to that plaintive instrument. Maestro Campanini says it furnishes a color in the orchestra which no other instrument can produce.

The contra-bassoon is not a stranger, but one will be interested to learn that instead of four French horns, Strauss insists upon six; instead of three trombones he demands four; instead of two flutes he must have three and a piccolo; instead of two ordinary bassoons, three are required; while the clarinets include a high E-flat instrument, a B-flat clarinet, two A-flat clarinets and one bass clarinet.

One harp does not satisfy Strauss, so he must have two; while the celeste, an instrument played like the piano, but the notes of which are produced by percussion upon glass, also has a place of honor in this great orchestra.

Among the other percussion instruments called for is the biggest bass drum that could be obtained in New York. An orchestra of 117 pieces is requisite to complete the performance. The cast will be as follows:

Salome Mary Garden
Herod Mme. Augusta Oforia
Herod M. Dalmores
Jokanaan M. Dufrane
Narraboth M. Valles
Page Mlle. Severina
Five Jews M. Sella, M. Venturini, M. Montanari, M. Daddi, M. Collin.

GIVES PROMPT RELIEF

PRESCRIPTION WHICH ELDERLY PEOPLE SHOULD VALUE HIGHLY BECAUSE IT IS GOOD.

ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS TO USE

Promptly Relieves All Forms of Kidney and Bladder Trouble and Rheumatism and Can Be Mixed at Home.

The great majority of men and women at the age of 50 years begin to feel the first signs of advancing age in some form of kidney trouble and bladder weakness. Few are entirely free from that torturous disease, rheumatism, which is not a disease in itself, but a symptom of deranged function of the kidneys, which have become clogged and sluggish, failing in their duty of sifting and straining the poisonous waste matter, uric acid, etc., from the blood, permitting it to remain and decompose, settling about the joints and muscles, causing intense pain and suffering.

The bladder, however, causes the old folks the most annoyance, especially at night and early morning.

Hundreds of readers who suffer will find the following, which is known as the Dandelion mixture, the most harmless and effective treatment to clean the system of rheumatic poisons, remove irritation of the bladder and relieve urinary difficulties of the old people. It is a true vitalizing tonic to the entire kidney and urinary structure, reinvigorating the entire system.

The Dandelion mixture consists of the following simple prescription, the ingredients of which can be obtained from any good pharmacy at small cost: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and upon going to bed, also drink plenty of water.

This prescription, though simple, is always effective in the diseases and afflictions of the kidneys and bladder and rheumatism.

UNBORN CHILD A SHIELD

Which Prevented Accidental Shot
From Killing Mother.

Laporte, Ind., Jan. 28.—Mrs. Albert Decker, wife of a farmer, lies at the point of death, her abdomen having been pierced by the full discharge of a gun held in the hands of her 18-year-old brother, Henry Murdock.
The shooting was accidental, the boy not knowing that the weapon was loaded, and being unfamiliar with the handling of a hammerless shotgun.
If the woman's life is spared, it will be owing to her imminent confinement. The body of the unborn babe was literally a shield against the shot, and prevented a hemorrhage which would have resulted in the woman bleeding to death before the arrival of medical aid.
Young Murdock is in hysterics, and it is feared the accident may permanently affect his mind.

S.S.S. THE ONLY REMEDY FOR BLOOD POISON

S. S. S. is the one and only reliable and certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. This claim is not based on the treatment of a few cases of the disease, here and there, but its success extends over a period of more than forty years, during which time thousands upon thousands have found a cure by the use of this great vegetable remedy. S. S. S. is first of all, an absolute perfect blood purifier, able to go down into the blood and remove every particle of the virus of Contagious Blood Poison. It cleanses and purifies the circulation, and in this way removes the cause of the trouble. Then nature, assisted by a rich, healthy blood supply, quickly renovates and renews the system, while the symptoms of ulcerated mouth and throat, skin eruptions, discolored blotches, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc., disappear, leaving the body entirely free from the effects of this insidious poison. When S. S. S. has thoroughly cleansed and purified the circulation there is no danger of any future outbreak—the blood is pure and the cause of the disease entirely removed. Home Treatment Book containing many valuable and helpful suggestions for those who are curing themselves with S. S. S., and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

A CHAPTER OF FASHIONS

WILLOWY COSTUMES OF THE SEMI-INVALID TYPE ARE NOT POPULAR.

THAT HAS BEEN CHANGED MATERIALLY

Catherine Mann-Payant Writes Her Weekly Letter for the Benefit of Readers of the Democrat-Sentinel.

(By Catherine Mann-Payant.)

New York, Jan. 28.—No woman today aspires to resemble the pale, willowy creatures of the semi-invalid type of fifty years ago. All that is changed. Girls now indulge in every kind of sport, athletics and every outdoor amusement that can be thought of. In this connection it is to be noted that dress has also undergone a change, owing to this attitude of mind. This is true, particularly in the matter of automobile clothes; but as a matter of fact, each sport has its own dress. If the woman be rich there is a gown for each form of its indulgence, if of moderate means there must be at least one or two that will serve several purposes.

At this time of the year the skating costume needs first thought.

One of the most elegant materials, as well as the warmest is velvet. Fur trimmings or garments of fur are, of course, the proper accompaniment to a dress for this sport. For the head, unless one wishes to be very simple and wear a hood, nothing could be more appropriate and more comfortable than the fur hats now so fashionable. It should be moderate in size.

Skirts might be thought to be too narrow when made after the present styles, but those of the newer modes are now made with extra pieces set in beneath the knees. One of these is a nine-gored plaited model that is close-fitting, with tiny plaits over the knees. The plaits are omitted at the hip seams, but under the side portions at the side seams there are small extra pieces put in. Another skirt has four gores and a panel on each side of narrow plaits, and still another has six gores with a set of plaits set in the front just below the knees.

Any of these skirts would be in good taste for a skating costume. One thing must be remembered in the skating skirt—that it must be short, but allowance must be made for the raise to the figure when on the ice. All skirts have the high waist line in sporting costumes, as well as in the dress skirt, and this idea is another aid to comfort and the good hang of the gown.

Bright colors are much affected by foreign women for such a sport. A pretty costume was of wine-color cloth, trimmed with a light brown sable. The skirt had the usual sheath-like fit and it reached the knees. The results were better than I had expected and in a short time I was in good health. I gladly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The automobile coat should be very long and roomy, for often one wishes to wear a heavier coat or a sweater underneath. Again, many of the new automobile coats are lined with fur, sometimes of an expensive quality, but oftener of squirrel or muskrat or some of the lower priced skins, which are as warm, if not as rich appearing.

The auto hats are allowed more license than those for street wear, the idea being to get one that is first becoming, that will fit well down on the head and adapt itself to the big veil that is a positive necessity. All sorts of material are used for the coat, as well as for the hat, but the former serge or heavy cheviot is much liked this season, and when a lining is provided it is very warm, but not too heavy for any walking that might have to be done in it. An idea that is good is a piece of silk pulled onto the inside of the sleeve and held about the wrist with an elastic. This prevents the wind from creeping up the sleeves.

Gloves for all outdoor sports are usually of some heavy kid or chamois, lined with fleece or wool, very roomy and soft, so the circulation may not be impeded, though to be sure, most women carry a muff, and this should be long in shape so the hands clear to the forearm may be covered. Such a coat and hat and fur accessories would be suitable also for driving.

For golfing or walking one of the circular or many gores skirts would be in good form, but should be made a little looser than the dictates of fashion demand just at the present time. Nothing should interfere with the movements of the body. A bright jacket, for which the new, loose models will be excellent, should come a little below the hip, and again, some women like the golf cape that has proved itself so strong a feature of the golfer's costume. After all, the coat lies about the figure more closely and therefore is warmer, though it may not give so picturesque a note as the cape.

The golf cap is perhaps as well liked as ever, though a small alpine or round turban is often seen. Nearly all the bright colors of the season seem to be favorites for the cap at least, and in many cases the cape also.

A good traveling suit could be developed from serge, which is one of the most popular fabrics of the season, and one with a wide-wale is the best liked for knock-about clothes. The color was blue, that old favorite called navy, and the decoration was made with machine stitching in black silk, and a wide braid for the belt and a narrower width around the yoke and sleeves of the waist. The skirt was made with a six-gored and plaited section inserted at each side where the two front sections lap over the back sections above the plaits. The closing is made with buttons and simulated button holes. It should be made in clearing length. Shorter length would be better if needed for long journeys, where one must often carry a bag or parcels. The coat which only came a trifle below the hips, had a back so slightly fluted that to all appearances it was straight. The coat sets in just a trifle and is an example of one of the winter's most chic styles. The front of the coat has a distinctly smart closing at the high bust line, where it fastens with two or three large buttons; from this point it slopes sharply away to the lower edge. A narrow shawl collar of black silk and braid and cuffs of the same kind are used. The bodice is a surplice waist trimmed to match the coat and skirt. A set of black lynx furs are used and a black fur turban is worn which has a touch of color in the big red rose and foliage that adorns the right front and side.
